The Account includes the charge for 1869-70, which was not paid in that year. This expenditure was not anticipated in January 1870.
The demands proved smaller than had been anticipated. The items are given in the margin. <sup>a</sup> Vide item on page 38, "Advances on account of the several Civil and other Provident Funds," for explanation of the cause of the greater part of this increase. The Fund pensions exceed the January Estimate. Increase attributable to the New Furlough Regulations.
Passage and Outfit Examination Expenses and Allow- ances of Candidates for the Co- -venanted Civil Service, the Tele- -graph and Forestry Departments, de. Allowances and Expenses of Officers in this Country studying various Subjects, <sup>b</sup> Ordnance, Musketry Ad- ministrations, &c. War Medals

Red Sea and India Telegraph Sundries
Decrease consequent on sums due for instruction of Cadets at Chatham and Woolwich remain- ing unpaid, and no Assistant Surgeons having been recently appointed.
Increase mainly owing to the recent decision to supply additional breech-loading Arms and Ammunition to the Troops in India; but partly to certain receipts and payments for Clothing, Accoutrements, &c., which balance each other, and were entitled in the January Estimate, being included on both sides of the Account.
The estimates were based on past experience, but the payments in 1870-71 on these accounts were exceptionally small. The medals were not prepared so rapidly as had been anti- cipated. <sup>c</sup> Not decided on in January 1870.
Consequent on reduction of the British Forces.
The January Estimate was made on insufficient data.

	17,000	11,025			7,375
				2	140,000 135,471

* Now included under "Army Miscellaneous."

The original Estimate was made in accordance with the Capitation Rate. The Special Committee on Non-effective Charges subsequently made a report under which India had to bear a largely increased charge in 1871-72, and will receive credit for a considerable amount thereof in subsequent years.

Lord Clive's Fund : Pensions, &c., Charge to India for Cost of Absorption of Supernumerary Ensigns in British Regiments .....

Gratuities equal to the value of their Commissions, granted to Officers of the late Indian Regiments on their Retirement from the Service .....

These payments are dependent upon the number of Officers retiring, which is very uncertain, but it now appears that the Estimate of December 1870 was too high.

LEAVE AND ALLOWANCES.

The 28th November 1872.

No. 4137.—The Governor General in Council is pleased to sanction the addition of the following rule to the Civil Leave Code as Rule 3a under Section 24:—

An officer may not return to duty from furlough or special leave more than fourteen days before the end of his leave without the permission of the authority which granted it. This permission may be given with such conditions as the authority granted it may see fit to prescribe. An officer returning from furlough or special leave more than fourteen days before its expiry is entitled to no subsidiary leave, save under the special orders of the Government to which he is subordinate. In such case, subsidiary leave cannot under any circumstances be allowed for more than thirty days, and should not be granted for even that period if less time will suffice for the journey from the place where the officer receives permission to return to duty to the station which he is directed to join.

RAILWAY.

The 28th November 1872.

No. 3 R.

Calcutta and South-Eastern (State) Railway.

The Governor General in Council is pleased to sanction, under Clause XXVI of Act XVIII of 1854, as amended by Act XXV of 1871, the application to the Calcutta and South-Eastern (State) Railway, from this date and until further notice, of the General Rules and Regulations of the East Indian Railway, as published in the Gazette of India of the 26th October 1867, page 1447, with the exception of the following alterations and suspensions:—

SECTION I.

For Rule 5 read:—

5. To enable the Driver to draw the attention of the Guard, and for other purposes, each Engine shall be furnished with a shrill Steam-whistle.

For Rule 12 read:—

12. The station lamps, when required, shall be lighted as soon as it becomes dusk, and during the twilight both the day and night signals shall be used.

SECTION II.

For Rule 3 read:—

8. He must not quit the service without having given one month's previous notice in writing of his intention, excepting such servants as have special agreements to the contrary. In case of his quitting without such notice, all claim for pay due will be forfeited.

SECTION IX.

Rule 1 is suspended.

SECTION XI.

For Rule 2 read :—

2. Every Officer in charge of a station has control over all the servants of the Railway Company attached to the station, and the signals connected with it.

For Rule 3 read :—

3. It will be the special duty of every Officer in charge of a station to attend to the arrival, despatch, and departure of trains. He will be held responsible for the station buildings and the property attached to them. He is also to be responsible for the faithful and efficient discharge of the duties devolving upon all the servants at the station. He will bring fully to the notice of his official superior all misconduct and inefficiency on the part of his subordinates. He is to take care that gates are in complete working order, and that the points have been properly locked.

Rule 5 is suspended.

SECTION XII.

For Rule 3 read :—

3. He shall receive instructions from the Traffic Superintendent, to whom he is to make known whatever is wanting.

Guards on receiving charge of a train will be furnished with a pass-key for opening the points. The key shall be delivered up on going off duty.

Guards shall attend to the shifting and replacing of switches used by their engines or trains, and they will be held responsible for the re-adjustment and locking of the switches which may have been used by themselves or their trains.

For Rule 5 read :—

5. The trains, when in motion, will be under the control of the first guard (in case there are two, the first shall ride on the van or carriage next to the engine or tender). The passengers and property in the train will be under his charge ; he will be responsible for the safety and regularity of the whole ; he is to keep the time as given to him by the Traffic Superintendent at the principal terminus, by which he is to regulate his time-piece daily, and which time he is to give to the Clerks at the intermediate stations ; he is to see every carriage detached, which may be destined for any intermediate stations ; he is to attend to the luggage, and enter up his way-bill correctly.

For Rule 7 read :—

7. Guards must regularly signal to the Engineman that all is right, but when anything is wrong, they must give the "Caution" or "Danger" Signal, and, if not observed, they must draw the cord connected with the Engine. The signal from the engineman to the Guards will be by means of the steam-whistle rapidly sounded at short intervals, on hearing which they must immediately apply their brakes.

Rule 13 is suspended.

SECTION XIII.

For Rule 15 read :—

15. Guards will give Enginemen a signal to start by blowing a mouth-whistle, which the Engineman must answer by a short whistle, before starting, from the steam-whistle. In every case when it is necessary for all the brakes to be applied, he shall sound the steam-whistle, and shall attend to any signal made by the Guard, whether by means of the cord, by waving flags, or by application of the brake.

SECTION XIV.

For Rule 8 read :—

3. The Pointsman is to be careful in keeping his points clear, and whenever a train or engine has passed over, he is to remove any particle of coke or dirt that may have dropped between the points, so as to prevent them from closing, and must also see that they are replaced in their proper position ; he is to try his points before the passage through of a train, that he may be thoroughly satisfied that there is no impediment to their true working, and in any case, where facing points exist, these precautions become doubly important.

Fort William, the 5th December 1872.

No. 2296P.—The following Convention between Her Majesty and the King of the Netherlands is published for general information:—

CONVENTION BETWEEN HER MAJESTY AND THE KING OF THE NETHERLANDS FOR THE SETTLEMENT OF THEIR MUTUAL RELATIONS IN THE ISLAND OF SUMATRA.

SIGNED AT THE HAGUE, NOVEMBER 2, 1871.

[Ratifications exchanged at the Hague, February 17, 1872.]

HER MAJESTY the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, being desirous to consolidate more and more, in the spirit of the Treaty of the 17th of March 1824, the friendship between the two countries, and consequently also to remove all occasion of misunderstanding in their mutual relations on the Island of Sumatra, have agreed to conclude a Convention for that purpose, and have named as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Hon'ble Edward Alfred John Harris, Vice-Admiral, Companion of the Most Hon'ble Order of the Bath, Her Britannic Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands;

And His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, Mr. Joseph Lodewijk Hendrik Alfred Baron Gericke van Herwijnen, Commander of the Order of the Netherland Lion, Knight Grand Cross of the Order of the Oaken Crown of Luxemburg, &c., &c., His Minister of Foreign Affairs; and Mr. Pieter Philip van Bosse, Commander of the Order of the Netherland Lion, Knight Grand Cross of the Order of the Oaken Crown of Luxemburg, &c., &c., His Minister for the Colonies;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:

ARTICLE I.

Her Britannic Majesty desists from all objections against the extension of the Netherland dominion in any part of the Island of Sumatra, and consequently from the reserve in that respect contained in the notes exchanged by the Netherland and British Plenipotentiaries at the conclusion of the Treaty of the 17th of March 1824.*

HARE MAJESTEIT de Koningin van het Vereenigd Koningrijk van Groot Brittannie en Ierland, en Zijne Majesteit de Koning der Nederlanden, wenschende, in den geest van het Tractaat van 17 Maart 1824, de vriendschappelijke verbonding tusschen de beide Landen meer en meer te bevestigen, en daartoe ook in Hunne wederzijdsche betrekkingen op het Eiland Sumatra alle aanleiding tot misverstand weg tenemen, zijn overeengekomen te dien einde een Conventie te sluiten, en hebben tot Hunne gevoldagtigden benoemd, te weten:

Hare Majesteit de Koningin van het Vereenigd Koningrijk van Groot Brittannie en Ierland, den Achtbare Edward Alfred John Harris, Vice-Admiraal, Lid van de zeer eervolle Orde van het Bad, Buitengewoon Gezant en Gevolmagtig Minister van Hare Britsche Majesteit bij Zijne Majesteit den Koning der Nederlanden;

En Zijne Majesteit de Koning der Nederlanden den Heer Joseph Lodewijk Hendrik Alfred Baron Gericke van Herwijnen, Kommandeur der Orde van den Nederlandschen Leeuw, Ridder Grootkruis der Orde van de Eikenkroon van Luxemburg, &c., &c., Hoogstdeszelfs Minister van Buitenlandsche Zaken; en den Heer Pieter Philip van Bosse, Kommandeur der Orde van den Nederlandschen Leeuw, Ridder Grootkruis der Orde van de Eikenkroon van Luxemburg, &c., &c., Hoogstdeszelfs Minister van Koloniën;

Die, na elkander hunne wederzijdsche volmagten, welke in goeden en behoorlijken vorm zijn bevonden, te hebben medegedeeld, omtrent de volgende Artikelen zijn overeengekomen en deze hebben vastgesteld:

ARTIKEL I.

Hare Britsche Majesteit ziet af van alle vertoogen tegen de uitbreiding van het Nederlandsch gezag in eenig gedeelte van het Eiland Sumatra, en mitsdien van het voorbehoud in dit opzigt voorkomende in de notas door de Nederlandsche en Britsche Gevolmatigden uitgewisseld bij het sluiten van het Tractaat van 17 Maart 1824.*

TRANSLATION.

Engagement subject to the approval hereafter of His Excellency the Governor-General of Netherlands India, concluded between the late Resident of Riouw, nominated Resident of Pekalongan, Frederik Nicolaus Nieuwenhuyzen, and the Resident of Riouw, Joan Hendrik Tobias, thereto duly empowered by His Excellency the Governor-General of Netherlands India by Decree of twenty-ninth of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, letter Q 2, private, on the one part, and His Highness the Jang di Pertoean bezar Rajah Ismael, Sultan of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies, together with His Highness the Jang di Pertoean Moeda Tongkoe Poetra, Viceroy of the aforesaid Kingdom, the Alar Datee Maharajah Srie Asmara, Chief of the Soekoe Tanah Datur, the Alar Datee Srie Indra Moeda, Chief of the Soekoe Lima-poeloe, the Alar Datee Maharajah Koeta Wangsa, Chief of the Soeloe Pasisser, and the Alar Datee Laxamana (Kemis), for themselves and their Successors on the other part.

Whereas His Highness Rajah Ismael, Sultan of the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies, in concert with His Highness the Viceroy Tongkoe Panglima Prang bezar, and the other Nobles, by Deed dated twenty-seventh of the month Sawal, of the year one thousand two hundred and seventy-three (Mahomedan era), offered the Kingdom to the Government of Netherlands India, and the offer was duly accepted for and on behalf of the said Government by Deed of the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; therefore, in order to provide for the regulation of the reciprocal observances which are necessary in consequence, it is agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles of the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies, declare for themselves and their descendants, that the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies forms a part of Netherlands India, and consequently is placed under the supremacy of the Netherlands.

ARTICLE II.

The territory of the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies is to be understood as consisting of the following countries and islands:

- (a.) Siak Proper, bounded on the south-east by the Kingdom of Kampar (Paloe Lawang), and on the north-west by the Kingdom called Tanah Poetah;
- (b.) The province of Mandan, situated at the southern boundary of Siak Proper;
- (c.) The province of Pekanbaroe, situated on the south-south-west of the province of Mandan;
- (d.) The provinces of Tapong ki and Tapong kanan, situated on the southern boundary of Siak Proper;
- (e.) The provinces of Tanah Poetah, Banko, Koehoe, Bilah, Pameh, Kwaloe, Assahan, Batoe Barah, Bedageh, Padang, Serdang, Putjoet, Pebangoengan, Deliehangkat, and Temian, situated on the east coast of Sumatra, north-west of Siak Proper; and
- (f.) The islands Bangkalis, Padang, Pantjar, Rantjam, and Ropat, together with all such other islets as lie, like the aforesaid, in proximity with the mainland, along the east coast of the Kingdom and its dependencies.

ARTICLE III.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves to maintain perpetual peace and friendship with the Netherlands Indian Government, to be enemies of the enemies of the Netherlands, and friends of the friends of the Netherlands, as well as to afford such assistance as is in their power with men, arms, and vessels, at the request of the Netherlands Indian Government, against the enemies of the Netherlands, and to the friends of the Netherlands.

ARTICLE IV.

The Netherlands Indian Government has the right of fortifying itself at such points within the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies as it may think fit, after consultation with the Sultan, Viceroy, and Nobles, and of erecting there such buildings as may be considered necessary.

In the first place there shall be a fort of the Netherlands Indian Government, erected at Mangkalis in the Island of Bangkalis.

The limits of this fort are shown on the plan drawn by the same and annexed to this engagement.

ARTICLE V.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves to assist, as far as is in their power, in the construction, at the cost of the Netherlands Indian Government, of all fortifications, buildings, and magazines which the Netherlands Indian Government may hereafter think necessary to erect within the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies.

In like manner, the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves to co-operate in the building of vessels at the cost of the Government, whenever required to do so.

ARTICLE VI.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves to carry on no hostilities against foreign priuees, and to make no preparation for hostilities without the consent of the Netherlands Indian Government, nor to construct fortifications without the previous knowledge of the Government, as well as to demolish on the first notice the fortifications erected with the previous knowledge of the Government.

ARTICLE VII.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves never to make over the Kingdom to any other nation than the Netherlanders, and also to enter into alliance with no other nation, without the consent of the Netherlands Indian Government.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves to send no letters, presents, agents, or envoys to any other nation than the Netherlanders, and also to accept no letters or presents, nor to receive agents or envoys from other nations, without the previous knowledge and consent of the Government of Netherlands India.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves not to suffer that the sending, accepting, or receiving of letters, presents, agents, or envoys, take place by or on behalf of their children or relations.

ARTICLE IX.

On the other hand, the Netherlands Indian Government binds itself to take the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies under its protection; to maintain the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles in their rights, and, moreover, to promote the advance of the Kingdom itself as much as possible, according to the circumstances of the time.

ARTICLE X.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves to promote the welfare of the people, to govern with justice, to protect and promote agriculture, industry, navigation, and trade in the Kingdom, and to establish no regulations by which these might be obstructed.

ARTICLE XI.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves not to grant the right of excavating underground, and of deriving profit from such excavations to persons not belonging to their native subjects, without a previous consultation thereupon and in concert with the Representative of the Netherlands Indian Government, in order that industrial undertakings adapted for the purpose may be regulated to the greatest advantage of the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles, without the Netherlands Indian Government having any intention to reserve to itself any portion of the profit; yet at the same time with due regard to the interests of Netherlands India, and according to the example of the Royal Decree of the twenty-fourth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, No. 45, "Indian State Journal," one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, No. 6, in its present terms, or as may hereafter be directed by His Majesty the King of the Netherlands; whereof communication shall be made to the Sultan by the Resident of Riouw, as often as it may happen. A Malay translation of the said Decree is attached to this Convention.

ARTICLE XII.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves to let no lands, nor to allow the possession of any lands, to persons not belonging to their native subjects, except with the previous knowledge of the Netherlands Indian Government, so that the matter at all times, when it may appear necessary to the Government of Netherlands India, may be regulated in concert with the Netherlands Indian Government, without any reservation of profit for the Netherlands Indian Government itself, to the greatest advantage of the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies; but, as far as possible, according to the general regulation, as it is settled by His Majesty the King, in a Decree of the third of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, No. 93, or as shall further be directed.

Immediate notice of such direction is to be given to the Sultan.

A Malay translation of the above-mentioned Decree of His Majesty the King, as it appears in the State Journal of Netherlands India for one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, No. 64, is attached to this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIII.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles hereby bind themselves to prevent, and to cause others to prevent piracy, to allow no refuge to persons whom they know to be guilty of piracy, or of whom they are so informed by or on behalf of the Resident of Riouw, or who lie under suspicion of being in correspondence with pirates; but the Sultan, Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves, on the contrary, to cause such persons to be arrested where they are found, and to be delivered up to the Resident, or to be tried according to the institutions of the Kingdom.

ARTICLE XIV.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves to afford help to shipwrecked persons, and to take care of stranded goods, and not to allow their subjects to neglect doing the same.*

ARTICLE XV.

Traders and vessels from the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies shall, in trading in Java and all other countries under the administration of the Netherlands Indian Government, enjoy all the privileges conceded to the subjects of the Netherlands Indian Government, on being provided with papers from his Highness the Sultan, and yearly passes besides, but which are not, however, to be granted, except with the consent of the Resident of Riouw, or his substitute, to be shown by their counter-signature to the said documents.

The form both of the papers and of the yearly passes shall be prescribed to his Highness the Sultan by the Netherlands Indian Government.

ARTICLE XVI.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves not to suffer kidnapping and trade in men, nor the import and export of slaves in the Kingdom.

ARTICLE XVII.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves not to allow Europeans or persons in like position, or Eastern foreigners, to settle as inhabitants in the Kingdom of Siak

* In the Decree of Ratification it is remarked that this Article requires some further extension, and that it ought to be stipulated therein that the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves to deliver over to the owners any ships, vessels, or goods that may be stranded, drifted ashore, or recovered out of the sea; and, in the event of the owners being unknown, to take care of them; under both circumstances, for such remuneration as shall be specially decided in each case, according to the laws and enactments in force in Netherlands India in regard to goods stranded or found at sea.

That in the case of ships, vessels, or goods stranded or drifted ashore, and also in recovering the same out of the sea, and in taking care of them, no other rights shall be claimed than for assistance and salvage.

That on the occurrence of each such case it shall be immediately communicated to the Resident or his representative, who then, in concert with His Highness the Sultan, or his representatives, shall proceed in and settle the matter entirely in the spirit of the laws and enactments bearing upon the case.

Srie Indrapoera and dependencies, except on the previous receipt of permission thereto from the Governor-General or his representative; the natives of the other parts of the Indian Archipelago are not excepted herefrom.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves to afford protection in person and property to all who settle as inhabitants within the Kingdom, with the permission of the Governor-General or his representative.

ARTICLE XIX.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves not to receive into the Kingdom persons who may have absented themselves without permission from the military or naval service of the Netherlands, or its possessions; nor criminals, or convicts, escaped from any part of Netherlands India. Such individuals are to be given up to the Government of Netherlands India on demand, or even without it.

ARTICLE XX.

It is allowed to the subjects of the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles, and to those of <sup>* Sio in orig.</sup> the Government of Netherlands India, provided they respect the laws of the country, to repair * the territories of the Sultan, the Viceroy and the Nobles, and to those of the Government to carry on free and unrestricted trade, as well as for the promotion of their rightful interests.

It is also allowed to the native subjects of the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles, and to those of the Government, to settle and reside where they choose, but with the obligation of arranging their affairs or interests at the place of their last abode, and of unconditional submission to the laws and institutions of the country in regard to agriculture, industry, navigation, trade, or otherwise.

ARTICLE XXI.

The Europeans and persons in the like position, the persons in the service of the Netherlands Indian Government, irrespectively of what country they may be, settled within the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies; and further, all persons without distinction as to their origin, settled within the compass of the establishments of the Netherlands Indian Government, are to be regarded as subjects of the Netherlands Indian Government, resting under the immediate authority of the Resident of Riouw or his substitute.

The Government of Netherlands India shall moreover have the right, as soon as it desires to proceed thereto, of declaring the Eastern foreigners settled within the Kingdom, whether of one or more separate nations among them, to be their subjects and under the immediate authority of the Resident of Riouw or his substitute.

ARTICLE XXII.

Every malefactor is to be punished according to the laws of and within the country where his offence has been committed; but those who are subjects of the Netherlands Indian Government are to be brought to justice before the Judges indicated by the Netherlands Indian Government, or hereafter to be indicated in conformity with the laws in force with the Judges; and for this purpose are to be delivered to the Resident of Riouw or his substitutes.

Subjects of the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies who transgress in company with the subjects of the Government of Netherlands India are to be brought to justice in company with these subjects before the Judges indicated for them by the Government, or hereafter to be indicated.

ARTICLE XXIII.

Torturing or mutilating punishments are to be done away with, and other punishments are to be substituted more adapted to the crime.

No subjects of the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles are to be visited with capital punishment within the kingdom, except upon being condemned thereto after the usual legal prosecution according to the institutions of the country, and the consent of the Sultan thereafter obtained for the execution.

ARTICLE XXIV.

Subjects of the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles, wherever they may be, excepting in the cases provided for in Article XXVII., who offend against the Netherlands Indian Government, are brought to justice before a Council to be summoned by the Resident of Riouw, together with the Sultan, at the chief town Tandjong Pinang.

regulations of the Netherland Government.

mogt worden, behoudens altijd de verplichting der Britsche onderdanen om zich te gedragen naar de wetten en regelingen van het Nederlandsch Bestuur.

This Council is composed of eight impartial, enlightened, and distinguished persons, of whom four, including the President, are to be chosen by the Resident, and four by the Sultan.

Nevertheless, the Resident of Riouw is free to refer the matter for settlement to the Sultan, who shall then decide thereon with justice and without delay.

ARTICLE XXV.

All matters of trade and industry in which subjects of the Netherlands Indian Government are concerned, if they give occasion for dispute with one of the subjects of the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies, are to be referred to the cognizance of the Judge for reciprocal disputes between Europeans in the said kingdom; and the Sultan, the Viceroy, and Nobles bind themselves to give full effect, within their jurisdiction, to the judgments passed by this Judge against their subjects.

ARTICLE XXVI.

The Netherlands Indian Government shall have the right, on giving fair compensation to the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles, to be fixed in concert with them, to take upon itself the levy of all charges and imposts now existing in the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies, either altogether or in part, as well as to substitute others for them.

ARTICLE XXVII.

All transgressions and offences committed within the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies, in the matter of the revenues to be owned by the Netherlands Government, shall, without distinction as to the nationality of the persons concerned, be subject to the cognizance and decision of the Netherlands Indian Judges, and the officers of the Netherlands Indian Government shall have perfect right to search out the transgressions and offences.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and Nobles shall support the officers therein as much as possible, and moreover shall on their part apply everything that may be useful in the said search.

All laws and regulations, however denominated, in matters concerning the rights, imposts, farming licences, and generally all revenues of the Netherlands Indian Government, and issues by that Government, shall have binding force for the inhabitants without distinction of the parts of the kingdom where the levy thereof is ceded to the Netherlands Indian Government.

ARTICLE XXVIII.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves not to increase or to aggravate the impositions lawfully existing in conformity with the institutions of the country, whether they are to be levied or performed in money, in produce, or in labor; and not to introduce new impositions without the consent of the Governor-General.

A return of such legally existing and operating impositions is to be appended to this Convention and to be referred to in case of possible dispute.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles are to take care that excessive or illegal levies be scrupulously prevented.

ARTICLE XXIX.

The Netherlands Indian Government has the right of freely cutting wood in the forests of the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies.

ARTICLE XXX.

Whenever the dignity of the Sultan of the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies may become vacant, by decease or otherwise, the Prince designated as successor to the Throne (Tongkoe Soelong Negara) succeeds to the dignity, after having made oath in writing of fidelity to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, and to His Excellency the Governor-General as His Majesty's representative in Netherlands India, and of strict observance of this Convention.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves to designate as soon as possible, with observance of the institutions of the country, in concert with the Resident of Riouw, the Prince whom they wish to be appointed successor to the Throne (Tongkoe Soelong Negara); and to repeat the like on every occasion when, for what cause soever, there is no designate successor to the Throne.

This designation is to be submitted to the approval and ratification of the Government of Netherlands India.

ARTICLE III.

The stipulations of the preceding Article shall not interfere with the distinction

ARTIKEL III.

De bepalingen van het voorgaand Artikel zullen geene verandering brengen in de

In the case of want of unanimity between the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles, and the Resident, in regard to the choice of the Prince to be raised to the position of successor to the Throne, the decision of the Governor-General is to be appealed to in a detailed report; and to this decision the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles bind themselves to submit unconditionally.

ARTICLE XXXI.

In case the designate successor to the Throne (Tongko Soelong Negara) should ascend the Throne during his minority, then until his majority, which is to be fixed by the Governor-General of Netherlands India, the princely authority is to be exercised by a Regency of a Prince or even two Princes chosen by the Governor-General, and confirmed in the dignity by a deed to be executed for the purpose.

ARTICLE XXXII.

The administration of the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies shall be exercised under the superior administration of His Highness the Sultan, by an Administrator of the Kingdom as Rajah Moeda, with observance therein of the ancient institutions of the country.

In order to provide for the case of there being no Viceroy from decease or otherwise, on the ascent of a new Viceroy, his eventual successor shall forthwith be chosen, with observance of the institutions of the country, and in concert with the Resident of Riouw, and this choice is to be submitted to the approval of the Netherlands Indian Government; the like shall be done on every occasion when, for what reasons soever, there is no such designate successor.

The Sultan, Viceroy, and Nobles bind themselves to choose, as soon as possible, in concert with the Resident of Riouw, the Prince whom they wish to be the destined successor of the present Viceroy.

The Sultan binds himself to give up the administration of his kingdom to the Administrator of the Kingdom, and in this respect to consult with no other than according to the ancient institutions of the country; nor to suffer that any one else besides the Administrator of the Kingdom should come to treat immediately with His Highness upon the matters concerning the administration.

ARTICLE XXXIII.

Before assuming his office and his dignity the Administrator of the Kingdom makes oath in writing of fidelity to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, and to the Governor-General of Netherlands India as His Majesty's Representative in Netherlands India, and to His Highness the Sultan.

The Administrator of the Kingdom binds himself never to suffer anything that might tend to the disadvantage of the interests of the Netherlands Indian Government in general, or of its administration in the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies in particular, nor of His Highness the Sultan, but, on the contrary, to co-operate so far as in his power, in the strict and faithful observance of all that whereto the Sultan, he, the Administrator of the Kingdom, the Viceroy, and the Nobles have bound themselves to the Government by this Convention, and whatever may tend to the prosperity and welfare of the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies.

ARTICLE XXXIV.

The Administrator of the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies is bound, whenever the interests, whether of the Government, of the Sultan, or of the Kingdom of Siak Srie Indrapoera and dependencies may require it, to betake himself, upon request so to do, to the seat of the Resident, and to remain there as long as the Resident may consider it unavoidably necessary for the interests of the affairs under consideration.

ARTICLE XXXV.

Every Proclamation, presentation to the people, or confirmation of the Sultan, or Administrator of the Kingdom, is null if it do not take place in consequence of the receipt of the deed of recognition and confirmation of the choice that has fallen on him, executed by the Governor-General.

ARTICLE XXXVI.

The Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles shall recognize and respect the Resident of Riouw as the Plenipotentiary of the Netherlands Indian Government, and therefore transact with him established by the Netherland-Indian laws and regulations between individuals of Western and individuals of Eastern extra-all business affecting their reciprocal interests ; they shall also send letters to the Netherlands Indian Government only with his cognizance, and despatch no embassies to the same except in concert with him.

ARTICLE XXXVII.

The Netherlands Indian Government binds itself, so long as the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles faithfully observe this Convention, not to interfere with the internal administration of the kingdom, which, on the contrary, is to be left to the Sultan, the Viceroy, and the Nobles.

ARTICLE XXXVIII.

This Convention comes into force as soon as the approval of the Governor-General is obtained for it.

The Treaties concluded on the fourteenth of December, one thousand seven hundred and forty-five, on the sixteenth of January, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-one, and on the first of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, remain binding in so far as the stipulations contained therein are not modified by the present Convention, or have not become void through altered circumstances of the times.

ARTICLE XXXIX.

With regard to points not provided for in this Agreement, and which may hereafter appear to require regulation, it is agreed that the parties shall come to an amicable understanding thereon.

Done and agreed to, at Siak Srie Indrapoera, this Monday the first of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

Three counterpart copies of this Agreement having been drawn up and ratified with the signatures and seals of parties, for use wherever they may be required.

STAR OF INDIA.

NOTIFICATION.

The 13th December 1872.

No. 36.

ON Saturday, the 16th of November 1872, at 4 o'clock P.M., HIS EXCELLENCY the VICEROY and GOVERNOR-GENERAL, Grand Master of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, held a Grand Chapter in the VICEROY's Camp at Bombay for the purpose of investing HER HIGHNESS the BEGUM of BHOPAL as a Knight Grand Commander of the said Order, and the HONOURABLE JOHN STRACHEY, Member of the Council of the VICEROY and GOVERNOR-GENERAL of India as Knight Commander of the said Order, in obedience to the command of Her Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, Sovereign of the said Order.

Each Knight Grand Commander who had been summoned to the Chapter, on his arrival at the entrance of the centre street of the Camp, was led by the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department to the tent assigned for his use, and, when robed, was conducted by the Under-Secretary to the Assembling Tent, where the Knights Commanders and the Companions of the Order also took themselves. A procession was then formed of the Members of the Order according to ancient custom, the Junior preceding the Senior Members of the Order. As the procession entered the Chapter Tent, a Royal Salute was fired. All present rose and remained standing till the Grand Master had taken his seat.

The following was the order of the procession:—

Spears.

Maces.

The Marshal of the Procession.

The Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department.

The Secretary of the Order.

Companions of the Star of India.

Knights Commanders of the Star of India.

Knights Grand Commanders of the Star of India.

Each Knight Grand Commander was preceded by the Officer bearing his Banner, and was followed by his Pages and Attendants.

Military Secretary to the Viceroy. | Private Secretary to the Viceroy.

Officer bearing the Banner of the Grand Master.

Pages and Attendants of His Excellency the Grand Master.

On entering the Chapter Tent each Member of the Order filed off, right and left, to the seat allotted to him, and made his reverence to the Grand Master as His EXCELLENCY passed. By command of the Grand Master, the Secretary declared the Chapter open, and proceeded to call over the names of the Knights Grand Commanders. Those present rose as they were called, and answered to their names. Absent Knights were replied for by the Under-Secretary. The Secretary next reported that the sole business before the Chapter was the investiture of HER HIGHNESS the BEGUM of BHOPAL, and the HONOURABLE JOHN STRACHEY, under the Sovereign's Warrants. The Secretary of the Order and the Under-Secretary then withdrew from the Chapter in order to receive HER HIGHNESS the BEGUM of BHOPAL. On arrival, HER HIGHNESS was met at the entrance of the centre street by the Secretary of the Order and the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department, who conducted HER HIGHNESS to the entrance of the Chapter Tent, where HER HIGHNESS was met by the two Junior Knights Commanders.

A procession was then formed of—

Spears.

Maces.

Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department bearing the Insignia of the Order.

Secretary of the Order.

The two Junior Knights Commanders.

Officer bearing the furled Banner of Her Highness.

HER HIGHNESS THE BEGUM OF BHOPAL.

Pages and Attendants of Her Highness.

The Guard of Honour presented arms as Her Highness passed.

The Secretary then produced and delivered to the Grand Master the Sovereign's Warrants, and, on receiving his Report, the Grand Master directed that the investiture should proceed. Her Highness accordingly advanced to the Throne, and the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department took from the table, on which the Insignia had in the meantime been laid, the Collar of the Knight Grand Commander, and, after making reverence, delivered it to the Grand Master.

The Secretary, having received from the Grand Master and read the Sovereign's Mandate, conducted HER HIGHNESS the BEGUM of BHOPAL to the table. By His EXCELLENCY's desire the Junior Knight Commander, receiving the Riband and Badge of the Order from the hand of the Secretary, invested HER HIGHNESS therewith, and the next Junior Knight Commander, receiving the Star of the Order from the Secretary, attached it in its proper place.

The Junior Knights Commanders next invested HER HIGHNESS with the Mantle of the Order. This done, HER HIGHNESS advanced to the front of the Throne and made her reverence. Meanwhile the two Junior Knights Commanders withdrew to their places and remained standing. The Grand Master rose and invested HER HIGHNESS with the Collar, and addressed the following admonition on the occasion :—

“ In the name of the Queen, and by Her Majesty’s command, I here invest you with the honourable Insignia of the Star of India, of which Most Exalted Order Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to appoint you to be a Knight Grand Commander.”

A salute of nineteen guns was then fired.

When the admonition had been given, the newly-invested Knight was conducted by the Secretary to each Knight Grand Commander, with whom HER HIGHNESS shook hands, and was then re-conducted to the table, where HER HIGHNESS signed the promise required by the Statutes of the Order, and then, after making her reverence, took her stand in front of her seat. The Senior Attendant on HER HIGHNESS unfurled her Banner, when a flourish of Trumpets was sounded, and the Secretary of the Order proclaimed the title of HER HIGHNESS.

The proclamation being ended, all resumed their seats.

The Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department and the two Junior Knights Commanders next conducted the HONOURABLE JOHN STRACHEY from his seat to the Throne. The Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department, with due reverence, delivered the Riband and Badge of the Order to the Grand Master. The Secretary, having received from the Grand Master and read the Sovereign’s Mandate, conducted the HONOURABLE JOHN STRACHEY to the table. The Grand Master then summoned the two Junior Knights Commanders from their seats, and, by His Excellency’s desire, they, on receiving the Star of the Order from the Secretary, attached it in the proper place. This done, the HONOURABLE JOHN STRACHEY advanced to the front of the Throne. Meanwhile the two Junior Knights Commanders withdrew to their places and remained standing. The Grand Master rose and invested the HONOURABLE JOHN STRACHEY with the Riband and the Badge, addressing him as follows :—

“ In the name of the Queen, and by Her Majesty’s command, I here invest you with the honourable Insignia of the Star of India, of which Most Exalted Order Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to appoint you to be a Knight Commander.”

When the admonition was concluded, the newly-invested Knight was conducted to the table, where he signed the promise required by the Statutes of the Order. This done, he was led to his seat, and all present resumed their seats.

The Secretary then represented that there was no further business before the Chapter, and the Grand Master rising commanded him to declare the Chapter dissolved.

A procession of Knights Grand Commanders of the Star of India, Knights Commanders of the Star of India, and Companions of the Star of India, was thereupon formed, left the Chapter Tent, and returned to the Assembling Tent, in the same order as when it entered, under a Royal Salute, a Grand March being performed and the Guard of Honour presenting arms.

The Secretary of the Order and the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department conducted the Knights Grand Commanders to their carriages.

By Command of His Excellency the Grand Master.

The Viceroy then delivered to the assembled Chiefs and Sirdars the following address, a translation of which was afterwards read by the Foreign Secretary:—

“ RAJAS and CHIEFS,—You are heartily welcome to this Durbar.

“ On behalf of the QUEEN, I beg to acknowledge with great satisfaction your willing attendance at Bombay, many of you at considerable personal inconvenience, and the hearty assurances which you have given to me of your feelings of loyalty and attachment to Her Majesty. It is my determination firmly to maintain the policy which has been carried out under Her Majesty's directions towards the Princes and Chiefs of India by Lord Mayo and his predecessors in the office of Viceroy. Your dignity, honour, and independence will be carefully respected, and no unnecessary interference will be exercised in your internal affairs.

“ I am satisfied that you have already had sufficient proofs of the justice and consideration for your interests which have been shown by Sir Philip Wodehouse to feel hearty confidence in him, and he, as well as the political officers, will be ready to give advice and assistance whenever you may desire it. I highly approve of the manner in which the Chiefs of Kattiwar have worked together in conjunction with the British Officers, and I anticipate considerable advantages from the survey and settlement of the rights of the Grassias, and from the establishment of the new Court of Purdhans.

“ I am glad to hear that the settlement of the boundaries of the States under the Rewa Khanta Agency will shortly be completed.

“ I have observed with pleasure that many among you have been able to acquire at the Rajcote College and in other educational institutions a good knowledge of the English language.

“ This Durbar is the first which has been held by a Viceroy in the city of Bombay; a vast concourse of people has been collected together to witness the different ceremonies which have taken place during the past week, and they have pressed forward upon every occasion with hearty demonstrations of loyalty to the Crown.

“ I feel confident that I faithfully express the feelings with which Her Majesty will receive the account which it will be my grateful task to lay before Her, by taking this the most public opportunity that I shall have, during my visit to Bombay, to express to the people of all ranks and classes who are assembled in this city, the thanks of Her Majesty for the loyalty and attachment which they have displayed.”

After the distribution of Uttur and Pán, the Durbar was dissolved under the usual ceremonies.
